

Computing

Programming: Selection in physical computing

Art

N/A this half term

DT

Cooking & Nutrition: Celebrating Culture and Seasonality

Researching recipes and evaluating ingredients to make yeast-based seasonal foods.

PSHE (Jigsaw)

Complete Being Me in My World

Thinking about goals and worries and choices, rights and responsibilities around learning.

Literacy

Key Text: FaRThER by Grahame Baker-Smith

This multi-layered, magical text will enable children to explore close relationships and their passions and motivations of characters.

Writing Outcomes: poetry, setting and character descriptions, a setting narrative, notes and a letter.

Maths

- Arithmetic practice (ongoing throughout the year)
- Multiplication and Division: factors; multiplying and dividing by 10, 100, 1000; using formal methods of long multiplication and long division.
- Fractions: equivalent fractions; comparing and ordering; simplifying; converting.
- Order of operations.

Autumn 2

Physical Education

Oak PE days: Wednesday & Thursday

Invasion: Netball / Basketball (Aspire)

Gymnastics

Spanish

Phonics
'I am Learning Spanish'

Spelling

Y5:

- Adding suffixes -ing and -ed
- Contractions
- Words containing ough

Y6:

- Adding -ed, -ing, -er, -est, -en
- Adding suffixes to words ending in -fer
- Words containing ough

Science

Living Things & Their Habitats (Classification)

- Describe how living things are classified into groups.
- Understand that living things can be grouped into micro-organisms, plants and animals. .
- Use the Linnaean system of classification.
- Give reasons for classifying living things.

Religious Education

Christianity

Exploring the Key Question:

Why is the Gospel such good news for Christians?

Geography

'Extreme Earth': Volcanoes & Earthquakes

- Earthquakes and plate tectonics
- What happens during an earthquake
- Earthquake survival (how buildings etc. are adapted)
- How volcanoes are formed.
- Where in the world are volcanoes
- Features of volcanoes
- What happens during an eruption

Autumn 2

Oak Class 2025